Annual Homeowner's Meeting

Saturday, April 28
at 10:00 a.m.
in the Brookhaven Park

Bring your lawn chairs or blankets and discuss issues that affect you and your property values!! Agenda topics will include:

- Officer Elections and Committee volunteer chair opportunities
- Financial Report of the HOA
- Perimeter fencing around the neighborhood
- Old and new business

Don't forget: You can't be an Officer or a Committee Chair if you don't pay your dues, so if you haven't yet paid your Homeowner's dues, you can bring a check to the meeting!

An Open Letter to My Fellow Brookhaven Residents:

I was asked to print a few comments for our newsletter. My fellow officers (all 2 of them) may be skeptical of my attitude as I am not very positive. I am positive about 1 thing: 3 people cannot be the entire association. Mary Scott, the president, has done a stellar job. Kara Moore, working mother with young children, has done a stellar job. I, Nancy French, as member-at-large, have assisted whenever and wherever asked. I have paid my dues since 1992, attended all but one neighborhood meeting, and helped with several projects. That being said, it is my opinion that unless more people show some support, there will at some point be the negative attitude that, "if no one else cares why should we." The BHNOA is not a law enforcement agency, and our dues are not mandatory. But as a group we can hold some power, even if it is only peer pressure. Our relationship to one another is safety and property value. We do not have to love or even like other. But we DO have to be involved.

PS from Mary Scott: To the person(s) who wrote the anonymous, hateful letter to Jim Slaughter, you should be ashamed of yourself! Jim served this neighborhood faithfully as Treasurer for over 5 years, and only until he had to start fighting CANCER did he reluctantly turn it over! What GOOD have you done for Brookhaven North??!!
