Fall Newsletter 2018

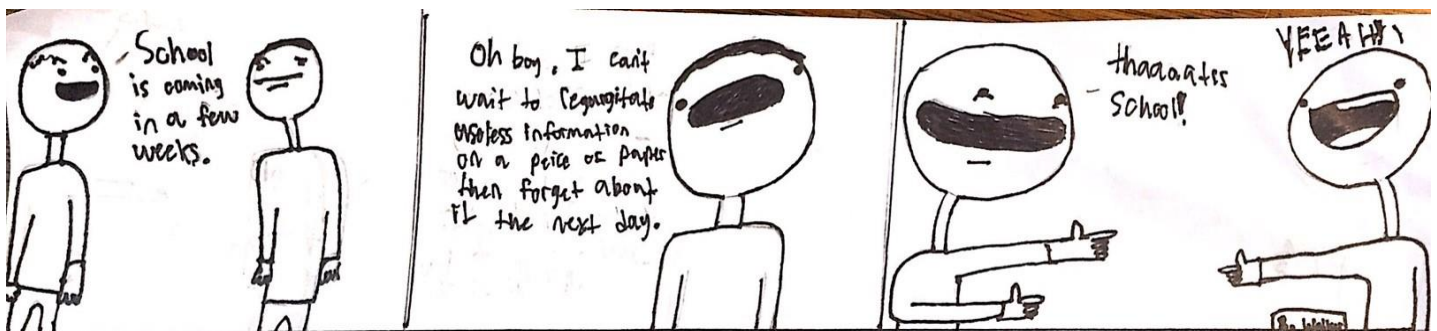

Hello Neighbors!

I hope this letter finds you well, blessed and hopefully getting/gotten your summer rest. ☺☺ This is a great time to be part of Brookhaven North as new exciting things are happening in our neighborhood, Edmond, and Oklahoma City. As I drive home, I love to see the excitement and newness on Covell, then head into my peaceful, friendly, mature treed, fully built, and only gaining in value because of it, neighborhood! Our HOA has organized wonderful plans for the future and is only getting stronger and increasing our communication and warmth to you. THANK YOU to all who show hospitality in Brookhaven North and we look forward to chatting with you! ~ Lisa Walker, Newsletter Editor

"I believe that appreciation is a holy thing- that when we look for what's best in a person we happen to be with at the moment, we're doing what God does all the time. So, in loving and appreciating our neighbor, we're participating in something sacred." ~Fred Rogers

From our HOA President, Allen Smith

What HOA's wish homeowners knew about HOA's.

1. We are volunteers! We stepped up to volunteer because we thought it was a great neighborhood and we wanted to help.
2. Don't believe the horror stories. Sure, there are stories we hear of HOA's that slap people with assessments for the golf-course, or boards that go rule-crazy and sue happy. One of our board members joined when we updated covenants and bylaws had come from a neighborhood that even controlled the color of paint on houses and he wanted to make sure BNHOA did not go to those extremes.
3. The rules exist for a reason. HOA's emerged to help homeowners maintain their property values and make sure one bad neighbor doesn't prevent others from getting fair market value. Homes are most people's single biggest financial asset, with the average home sale in Brookhaven North just over $213,000. Protect your investment and your neighbor's.
4. We're not your enemy. BNHOA is a pretty-easy going and is focused on keeping up maintenance and basic appearance. If your neighbors complain to us online, then you will get a letter. Just remember you chose to be part of a neighborhood so be a good neighbor and observe the rules that came with your property.
5. Make Friends, real life ones. Get to know your neighbors. Come to a meeting, volunteer to help with a fun kids' event, or come plant flowers. Brookhaven has a lot of great people and we hope you will get to know some of them.

See you around the neighborhood,
Allen
